

The Prompter

Utah Theatre Association

Fall 2016

Workshops

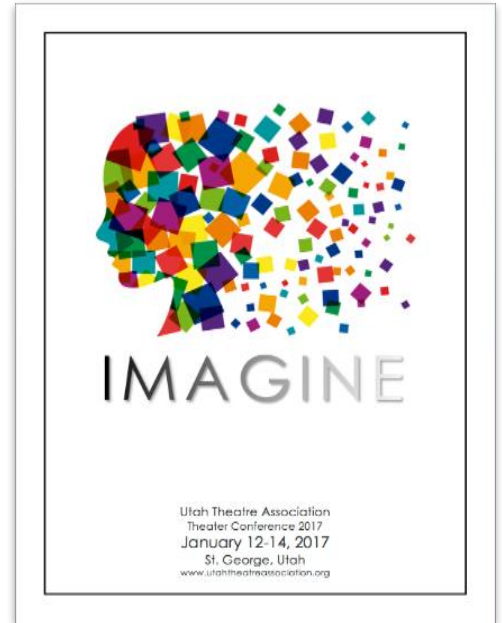

We offer a wide variety of workshops during the conference. You and your students can attend the wide variety of workshops including acting, costume, makeup, pantomime, stage management, lighting design, playwriting, musical theatre, ensemble work, dramaturgy, children's theatre and much more! There are also workshops offered for teachers only. If you want to know more or are interested in teaching, please email workshops@utahtheatreassociation.org.

Hotel Info

We have hotel information listed on our website. We recommend you schedule your hotel rooms NOW! It's a busy weekend down in St. George and hotels will book fast!

UTA Conference is headed to Dixie!

The Utah Theatre Association Conference is coming January 12-14 in St. George at Dixie State University and The Dixie Center. Our theme of "Imagine" is so fitting for all that we as artists do! We are excited to bring guest artists and instructors to bring you even more ideas for you to imagine and create! We are excited to have another weekend to come together and share in the excitement of theatre!

DEADLINES– Mark your calendars!

Registration

November 23

$90 per student

$40 per Jr. High student

$40 one day option

*More info online

Playwriting

November 15

Titles due by Dec 24

Acting/Theatre Arts

November 23

Scholarship Screening
Resumes Due

Be sure to get your registration materials in ON TIME! A $25 late fee per registrant will be applied after Nov 23. No registrations will be accepted after Dec 9.

Guest Artist- KC Wilkerson

Look for registration materials to come by mail in October. Or you can always find them on our website!

If you are new to UTA and would like registration materials, email your name and school address to info@utahtheatreassociation.org

One of the guest artists we are welcoming is KC Wilkerson. KC Wilkerson is a critically-acclaimed, award-winning lighting and video designer based in southern California. He is currently the senior lighting designer for Disney Parks & Resorts Creative Entertainment, where he leads the group responsible for the design, implementation, and programming of entertainment lighting for the Disney properties in California and Hawaii. With Disney, he has collaborated on a variety of projects, special events, concerts, tours, and themed experiences across the globe. His recent Disney projects include “Halloween Screams”, “Disneyland Forever” and “Diamond Mad T Party”.

Playwriting

Students can submit an original 10-minute script for adjudication, feedback, staged readings, and a chance to win cash awards at the conference.

Scholarships

Senior students have the opportunity to audition and present to college representatives in acting or theatre arts. See the website for more info.

Performances

Each day there is an opportunity to see nationally recognized theatre artists perform. Additionally, we get a chance to see full length performances from schools and colleges in the Utah area.

Questions?

Feel free to contact UTA for more information:

info@utahtheatreassociation.org

Or by specific area:

registration@utahtheatreassociation.org

playwriting@utahtheatreassociation.org

exhibitors@utahtheatreassociation.org

acting@utahtheatreassociation.org

theatrearts@utahtheatreassociation.org

workshops@utahtheatreassociation.org

Check us out on social media!

Utah Theatre Association

utatheatre

www.utahtheatreassociation.org